WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29, 1853. For the benefit of the pubcic, and with none other han a desire to do good, I cheerfully state, that I vas afflicted with a cough and bronchial affection, rom July, 1852, to March, 1853, and during that me was almost constantly confined to my room, boring under great debility and severe cough. I d medical skill of the highest order, through ose treatment, and under the guidance of a her than mortal power, my life was prolonged March, 1853, when I commenced the use of Dr. dwell's Beech Drop, or Extract of Cancer Koot. ace that period I have taken about six bottles of the medicine, and it gives me pleasure to state that has effected an entire cure, with the exception of veakness, occasioned by long confinement to my oom. I would advis- a'l persons similarly afflicted try it. I consider it an invaluable medicine The humbugs usually palmed upon the public in he shape of certificates favorable to the virtues of melicines, almost deter me from giving mine: but sease of justice and humanity alone prompt me to make the above statement.

Late Ass't Clerk Ho. of Raps., Washington. Now Chief of the Land Office, Vicennes, Ind, CHRONIC RHEUMATISM CURED!

GEORGETOWN, Jan. 31, 1353. DEAR SIR: It is with a sense of gratitude, and ire that others suffering from disease may be inseed to use the Extract of Beech Drop, that I conat to give the following statement for publicity. Until the last month I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, from the effects of which my health var so completely undermined and broken up, that lost 29 or 39 pounds of my usual weight. Anxious patent medicines. I used a number of bottles of lownsend's Sarsaparilla, and exhausted the list of dniments, without any effect. My joints now besame enlarged, and the pains in my limbs so excrudisting, that they had to be rubbed two or three mes a night. The muscles of my legs were so conacted that I presented the appearance of a man of lity-five when I walked. In this condition, more rough curiosity than a belief in its good effects, I menced the use of your Beech Drop, and in ten twelve days the swelling about my joints had subed; and now, after the use of three bottles, I am le to resume my business, and can walk with the | prices. me ease and comfort that I formerly did.

Yours truly, &c., Issue based. Yours truly, &c., Second street, Georgetown. GEORGETOWN, February 1, 1854. Ma. Kibwell-Sir: A female member of my family, ged 14 years, had been affected with a painful Scrofalous affection of the ear for 4 years, and although the best medical advice was had here and in Baltire, still the disease increased and the pain often ame almost intograble. Portunately for us, your sech Drop was recommended to be used, and I have treat pleasure in stating that it has been eminently successful. The Mucous Secretions has not made its appearance for some months; the health of the patient has been quite restored; all the parts that ere heretefore so much diseased have become sound had well, and I am much gratified in being able to tate to you, that I regard it as having been acomplished entirely by the use of your Beech Drop. I am very respectfully, your obedient servant, GEORGE POE, Sr. To John L. Kidwell.

Washington, D. C., December 12, 1853. John L. Kirwell: Dear Sir—This is to certify that daughter, aged 2 years, was affected with Scrofof a very aggravated form-the disease had so termined her health, that life was entirely deared of. Hearing of the efficacious effects of your Beech Drop in such cases, I procured it, and after using one bottle so evident was her improvement that we persevered with it. When she had used 4 bottles, her health was perfectly restored. Our neighbors and friends who saw her condition prior to using the Beech Drop, units in attributing to your remedy the credit of her recovery.

Very respectfully yours, WHIMER, McLEAN.

The following extracts, taken from an address to the "Congregation of Saints," delivered by one of the Mormon elders, and published in the Deseret News, will show what sort of nonsense, blasphemy and immorality is being disseminated in Utah Territory, in the name of religion what does he say upon the subject of Christ and his apostles, and their belief? He says, "the grand reason why the Gentiles and philosophers of his school persecuted Jesus Christ because he had so many wives; there was Elizabeth and Mary and a host of others that followed him." After Jesus went from the stage of action, the apostles followed the example of their master. For instance, John, the beloved disciple, writes in his her children whom I love in the Lord.' Again, he says, "having many things to FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, AND WHOOP- write unto you or communicate, I would The Best Cough Syrup in the World.

Dr. Rose's Celebrated Cough Syrup gives immediate relief to to the worst Cough, whether Consumption of that our joy may be full." Again, "The children of thy elect sister greet thee." This ancient philosopher says they were both John's wives. Paul says, "mine answer to them that do examine me is Whooping Cough, another complaint, always worse in cold and damp weather. The afflicted find great relief in the use of Dr. J. The grand reason of the burst of public sentiment in anathemas upon Christ and his disciples, causing his crucifixion. was evidently based upon polygamy, according to the testimony of the philosophers who rose in that age. A belief in the doctrine of a plurality of wives caused the persecutions of Jesus and his followers. We might almost think they were

You need not wonder that we raise stout boys in the mountains, for we want children of the right build; we do not want a scrubby breed here. Men of Mormon blocd are not afraid to die. The are not worth a picayune. A man that refuses to walk up in the track, no mataundice, &c., take Dr. Rose's Anti-Binous or Rail the way, he is not of Mormon grit. That was the grit Joseph Smith had; and when he spoke, he spoke by the power of an endless priesthood, which was upon him: and that is the power by which Brigham speaks. When he stood up in the majesty of his priesthood, and rebuked the judges here, I know some of our milk and water folks thought all the fat was in the fire. " Brother Brighman has gone rather too far; he might have spoken a a little milder than he did; I think it would have been much better," etc. This was the language of some hearts; and I feel to say, damn all such poor pussyism. When a man of God speaks, let him speak what he pleases, and let all Israel say

PARISIAN GAMBLING SALOONS .- Mean-London Atlas, the one resource of gossip in the decadence of every Government is found in the tittle-tattle, literally "renewed from the Greeks," of the retablissement des Jeuz Publies. The thing is most certainly debating at this moment. The successful candidate for the fermage being no other than our friend Vernon, who always seems to follow the state ship in a tour, like the shark, on the watch for whatever prey may be consigned to the deep to lighten its progress -perhaps he treats it like a private vessel, and knows well enough that every now and then, when hard pressed by the enemy, the captain is compelled to throw some of his most valuable booty overboard. the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain, This seems the plan upon which these old and rotten nest-eggs of corruption are about to reappear before an indulgent public. John Mitchell, in the last number of his paper, the "Citizen," publishes a second Epistle, "To the elect lady and letter from John Martin, one of the Irish patriots yet in exile, to John Mitchell. At the date of the letter, 29th September last, Smith O'Brien and O'Dogherty were not write with paper and ink, but I trust in good health. Mr. Martin's heart is still strong in attachment to Ireland and her cause. He seems to think, however, that unless an opportunity is soon offered, or made, for doing something for her. she will become more hopelessly subject to England. To Mr. Mitchell, he thus speaks:

"Is there anything to be done for Ireand-to save her yet, or to raise her from the grave !- and can you do it? The idea of flattery between us two is absurd. I tell you, you are abler to serve Ireland than any other man I know-if not to give triumph to our cause, yet at least to give it dignity. Shall I not blame you. will you not condemn yourself if you, in any way wilfully damage your power to save Ireland? You did damage your usefulness in Ireland by something of intolerant sternness, by a want of kindly courtesy. Say that the opposite fault is mine, and that it is a silly one. I answer. (assuming that my faults are of any importance to the world,) that the worst effect of the silly fault is to give trouble to the proprietor of it; while yours offends men that trouble, and whose hearts go the weak, produces faction among the proud, alienates all. And our cause needed and needs the help of all-the weak and the proud, as well as the heroes and the philosphers.
